

PRONUNCIATION OF LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles Times (1886-1922); Nov 9, 1905;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Los Angeles Times (1881-1989)

pg. 114

PRONUNCIATION OF LOS ANGELES

Don't torture the "Seraphs," dear rhymsters—please!

By making Los Angeles rhyme with breeze!

Or ease or peas or tease, mayhap;
Or seize or lees or knees inapt.

Substitute Bess or Jess or less—
Or yes or guess or bless or mess;
You'll earn our cordial thanks thereby,
And spare us many a shudd'ring sigh.

FRANCES BAGBY-BLADES.

November 7, 1905.

Prison is Painful.

Elliott F. Shepard, a rich New Yorker who killed a girl in Paris last April by running over her with his automobile, has been fined $120, ordered to pay $4000 damages to the victim's parents and sentenced to serve three months in jail.
What pains Mr. Shepard particularly is that he finds it impossible, notwithstanding his wealth, to avoid going to prison. France is a queer country—
Chicago Record-Herald